Investors Realty appoints Neary president of firm, Kerrigan to VP

Investors Realty has promoted R.J. Neary to president and Tim Kerrigan to vice president.

Marking its 35th anniversary in June, the company was founded in 1975 by Steve Farrell and Jerry Heinrichs. It has expanded to become a full-service commercial, retail and office real estate sales and property management company.

Neary became a managing partner in 1992; Kerrigan joined the company in 1994 and became a partner in 2006.

Farrell, who served as president since 1992, will continue to provide brokerage services to his clients and advice to the firm, its agents and brokers.
